

LE Cooke Nurseryman Ltd. Superzyme Trial Results

"We didn't expect such positive results in the first year in ex apple ground without any signs of damping off diseases. Tree health has been exceptional with no misses or variations in quality, the grafts have calloused extremely well and the trees are literally twice the strength and size as the non treated controls."